Lancaster Democrats Meet To Get Out The Vote

Get Out The Vote, for the March 3rd Presidential Primary Election for the Democratic nominee for President, will be the focus of the Lancaster County Democratic Committee's (LCDC) next meeting — to be held Monday, January 27th at the Lancaster Community Library (16 Towne Centre Dr., in Kilmarnock.) Refreshments are available at 6:30 P.M. The meeting starts at 7:00 P.M.

“Each person’s opinion is important in this critical time in our country,” said Robert Bennett, Chairman of the LCDC. “Our goal is to help our neighbors see that their vote matters, and that it matters who is elected,” Bennett continued. For this reason, a representative for Vangie Williams, a candidate in the June 9th Primary Election for the Democratic nominee in the 1st Congressional District, will also be at the meeting.

Sample ballots for the March 3rd Presidential Primary election will be provided. The ballots indicate both the active and withdrawn candidates, as follows: Cory Booker (withdrawn), Julian Castro (withdrawn), Bernie Sanders, Elizabeth Warren, Marianne Williamson (withdrawn), Michael Bennet, Joseph R. Biden, Amy Klobuchar, Tulsi Gabbard, Deval Patrick, Pete Buttigieg, Andrew Yang, Tom Steyer, and Michael R. Bloomberg. Links to the candidates’ websites can be found on the LCDC website (www.lancovadems.org.)

In-person absentee voting in the Presidential Primary election began January 16th at the county Voter Registrar’s offices. To vote in-person absentee, no appointment is needed; simply bring your current photo ID to the county registration office and you may cast your ballot.

Voters may request absentee voting by mail at the county Voter Registration office or online at www.elections.virginia.gov, where you also can register as a new voter or update your current voter registration. The deadline to register or update your registration is February 10, 2020, for the Presidential Primary.
